Office Relocation: Weekly Update

The finance office will move to the third floor on Monday. Staff are asked to affirm their new desk numbers by Friday so that the relocation can flow smoothly. An efficient workflow depends on clear labels for every box.

Practical details

The facilities team has confirmed that the official floor plan is final. Please file any complaint about misplaced equipment with the help desk. Coffee will be served in the lounge on the fifth floor during the transition. The move coordinator will send a short summary every evening.
