Excesses

The excess is the part of each claim that you pay yourself. Compulsory and voluntary excesses are added together.

Section	Excess		Total
	Compulsory	Voluntary
Accidental damage	£250	£150	£400
Fire and theft	£250	£150	£400
Young or inexperienced driver	£350	£150	£500
Windscreen replacement	£95	£0	£95

No claim discount

Your policy includes a no claim discount for nine years. The discount is protected, so up to two claims in any three-year period will not reduce it. Protecting the discount does not protect the premium, which may still rise after a claim.

Endorsements

E07 — Approved repairer

If you choose not to use our approved repairer, an additional excess of £200 applies to any accidental damage claim.

E19 — Telematics device

Cover is conditional on the telematics device remaining installed and connected for the whole period of insurance.

General conditions

1. You must take all reasonable steps to protect the vehicle from loss or damage.
   (a) Keep the vehicle locked and the keys out of sight when it is unattended.
   (b) Keep the vehicle in a roadworthy condition and hold a valid MOT certificate where one is required.
2. You must tell us within 48 hours about any accident, loss or damage, whether or not you intend to claim.
3. You must tell us before the change takes effect if:
   (a) you change your address or the place where the vehicle is kept overnight;
   (b) you want to add a driver or change the use of the vehicle;
   (c) a driver receives a motoring conviction or a medical condition affecting driving.
4. We may cancel the policy by giving you seven days' notice in writing to your last known address.

To make a claim, call our claims line on 01632 960 755, available 24 hours a day. Have your policy number and the registration of every vehicle involved ready when you call.
