Revenue by segment and quarter

Ferry services remained the largest segment and contributed more than half of group revenue. The third quarter was the strongest because of the summer passenger season.

Key accounting policies

Consolidation	The statements include all entities controlled by the company at the year end.
Revenue	Revenue is recognised when the voyage or service has been delivered to the customer.
Property, plant and equipment	Vessels are depreciated on a straight-line basis over 25 years.

The group applies the following exceptions to these policies:

(a) Dry-docking costs are capitalised and depreciated over the period to the next docking.

(b) Short-term leases of less than twelve months are expensed as incurred.

These statements were approved by the board of directors on 12 March 2026.
